

At thy Birth, Incarnate Lord

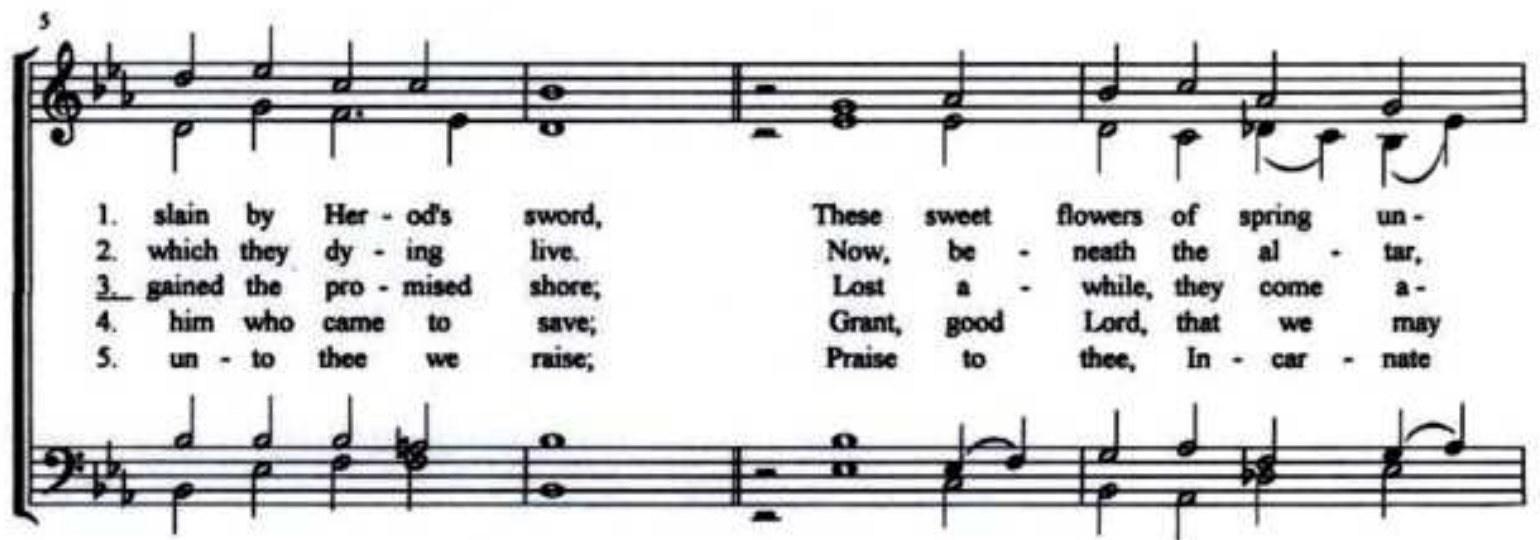

Horatio Bolton, Third Earl Nelson (1823-1913)

"Song 13," by Orlando Gibbons (1585-1623)

1. At thy birth, In - carn - ate Lord, Ear - ly
2. Thou, an In - fant born, didst give Life by
3. Weep - ing Ra - chel weeps no more; They have
4. They un - con - scious wit - ness gave Un - to
5. Hymns of glo - ry and of praise, Fa - ther,

1. slain by Her - od's sword, These sweet flowers of spring un -
2. which they dy - ing live. Now, be - neath the al - tar,
3. gained the pro - mised shore, Lost a - while, they come a -
4. him who came to save; Grant, good Lord, that we may
5. un - to thee we raise; Praise to thee, In - car - nate

1. blown, Thou didst weave with - in thy crown.
2. they Wait for Res - sur - rec - tion Day.
3. gain, One with all the mar - tyr train.
4. be, Con - scious wit - ness - es to thee.
5. Son, With the Spi - rit, ev - er One.

